

MICHAEL N. ROBINSON

GENERAL INFORMATION

Education

Ph. D. Candidate Accounting, Arizona State University - W.P. Carey School of Business, 2005 – present (expected completion Spring 2009)
Dissertation Committee: Philip Reckers (Chair), Molly Mercer, Kurt Pany, and Govind Iyer

Masters in Accounting and Information Systems - Arizona State University, 2001

MBA (Finance) -The Pennsylvania State University 1989 MBA

B.Sc. General Management and Accounting - University of the West Indies 1983

Professional Experience

Intel Corporation - Senior Operations Financial Analyst, 2001 - 2005

Facey Commodity Co. (Jamaica) Ltd
General Manager: Hardware and Building Products Division, 1995 -1999

Industrial Commercial Developments (Jamaica) Limited
Senior Financial Analyst: Manufacturing and Distribution, 1993 - 1995
Internal Audit Manager, 1991 - 1993

Facey Commodity Co. (Jamaica) Ltd
Planning and Information Systems Manager, 1989 - 1991
Management Accountant, 1983 – 1987

Professional Affiliations

American Accounting Association, 2005-
Financial Accounting Research Section, 2006-
Beta Gamma Sigma 1989-

Contact Information

School of Accountancy
W. P. Carey School of Business
Arizona State University
Tempe, AZ 85287-3606

(480) 244-9185 (C)
(813) 235-6758 (H)
michael.robinson@asu.edu.

MICHAEL N. ROBINSON

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Judgment and decision making within accounting and auditing contexts with specific focus on corporate governance, financial reporting quality, and audit regulation and practice

RESEARCH UNDER REVIEW

- "Board composition, outside director ownership, and bankruptcy outcomes" with Henock Louis, Dahlia Robinson, and Craig Sisneros. Submitted to the Journal of Financial and Quantitative Analysis.
- "Determinants of the voluntary switch from auditor-provided to non-auditor-provided tax services" with Susan Albring and Dahlia Robinson. Submitted to The Accounting Review.

RESEARCH IN PROGRESS

- "An examination of the effects of the fraud triangle decomposition, task difficulty, and affect, on auditors' fraud risk assessments" (dissertation)
- "The information content of auditor changes prior to bankruptcy filings."
- "Insider trading and earnings management around bankruptcy filings."

TEACHING INTERESTS

Financial Accounting (graduate and undergraduate), and Managerial accounting (undergraduate)

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Instructor - Arizona State University
ACC 240 - Introductory Managerial Accounting, Summer 2008
ACC 230 - Introductory Financial Accounting, Spring 2006

Teaching Assistant - Arizona State University
ACC 394 - Accounting and Financial Analysis, Fall 2005

Instructor - Institute of Management and Production (Kingston, Jamaica)
Introduction to Management, 1990 - 1994

CONFERENCES

- American Accounting Association Annual Meeting, August 2007, Chicago
- KPMG Minority Doctoral Consortium - August 2007, Chicago
- American Accounting Association Annual Meeting, August 2006, Washington D.C.
- AAA Financial Accounting and Reporting Section mid-year Meeting and Doctoral Consortium, Atlanta, GA. January 2006

MICHAEL N. ROBINSON

- KPMG Minority Doctoral Consortium - August 2006, Washington D.C.

SERVICE

Ad Hoc reviewer for American Accounting Association

GRANTS AND AWARDS

- KPMG Peat Marwick Foundation Minority Accounting Doctoral Scholarship, 2005 –
- Arizona State University - Graduate Academic Scholarship 2005 -
- Latin Americas and Caribbean Scholarship, 1987-1989

REFERENCES

Philip Reckers (Dissertation Chair)
Professional Advisory Board Professor
School of Accountancy
W.P. School of Business
Arizona State University
Tempe, AZ 85287
Phone: 480-965-2283
Fax: 480-965-8392
Email: Philip.Reckers@asu.edu

James Ohlson
W. P. Carey Chair in Accountancy
School of Accountancy
W.P. School of Business
Arizona State University
Tempe, AZ 85287
Phone: (480) 965-3693
Fax: 480-965-8392
Email: James.Ohlson@asu.edu

Michael Mikhail
Director
School of Accountancy
W.P. School of Business
Arizona State University
Tempe, AZ 85287
Phone: (480) 727-7198
Fax: (480) 965-8392
Michael.Mikhail@asu.edu