

LAVAL 2012

Summer Business School

Mid
June

-

Mid
July

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Students will learn about international trade while being submersed in Quebec's unique culture. Students will have the opportunity to study with students from diverse backgrounds and cultures, create a network of contacts, and learn from experienced professors and business managers in the classroom. This program features business visits to local companies to supplement the classroom learning as well as cultural visits to enhance the students understanding of the local culture.

UNIVERSITY

Université Laval is the oldest centre of education in Canada and was the first institution in North America to offer higher education in French. Its main campus is located in Quebec City, Quebec, the capital of the province, on the outskirts of the historic city. Laval is ranked among the top ten Canadian universities in terms of research funding. Université Laval offers over 350 programs to more than 37,000 students.

COST

Estimated Costs $2,800
(Does not include airfare and meals)

Website: <http://english.fsa.ulaval.ca>

COURSE OUTLINE

Students will learn about business from the context of the North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA). The courses that will be offered focus on the political and business structure in Quebec, as well as Trade and relationships between Canada, Mexico and the U.S.

COURSES

The program features two (3) credit hour courses:

Politics & History of Quebec
Trade Relations w/ NAFTA

Open to:
Business Students with 60 credit hours
ITB Students– Concentration Europe

PROGRAM INCLUDES

Accommodations in Canada
Transportation on arrival from/to airport
Business visits, cultural excursions
Two (3) credit hour courses
Pre-Departure Orientation
Health Insurance
Breakfast Daily

experience,
adventure,
education,
for life.

Coordinator

Rene Sanchez
Education Abroad
(813) 974-3104
rene@usf.edu

Advising Contact

Pavla Ozkul
College of Business
BSN 2202
(813) 974-162
pozkul@usf.edu